1. REALITY CHECK (the unspoken understandings of grant writing)

- Grant writing can be stressful. . . but it is ok. YOU. CAN. HANDLE. IT!

- You win some and you lose some - that's the nature of grant writing.

- If you are feeling like you are an imposter, that's normal.

- Grant writing is work. . . but its an incredible creative process.

Good news. . .

You'll learn to do it the

Writing for Success: The Basics

5 Ws + 1 H Who, What, When, Where, Why and How!

It is basic, but basic foundations set the stage for the finite details.

- Who are you serving? Who is involved in the project?
- What is the project? What it's going to cost? What does the project solve?
- When does the project take place?
- Where does the project take place?
- Why does it matter?
- How you are going to do it?
